Maricopa County recorder Stephen Richer just lost his Republican primary — a major blow to how the Arizona county's elections will likely be administered.

Richer defended Arizona's election processes and the results of the state's 2020 and 2022 races.

Richer lost to Justin Heap, a Kari Lake-endorsed critic of the county's recent elections. Heap has refused to say whether the 2020 election was free and fair (it was).

This is rapidly becoming one of my favorite follows on Threads.

A Thread, read to the end, it's worth it.

(Oh, and if you don't know who Adrian Dittman is, spoiler, yes you do)

re Elon's nutty son

vivllainous

2h2 hours ago

I have been made aware of the incessant number of posts that Adrian Dittman has been writing on his main (yes, I know I'm being petty, whatever) about trans people over the last few days. For most of them my honest reaction has been... I don't give a fuck. However, I believe this one could be a learning moment for everyone. Of course, we will also be roasting these alt-right clowns along the way so let's get to it

2h2 hours ago

Recently, Elon quote-tweeted a video from the Alliance Defending Freedom with this tagline which y'know... subtle. Before we get into anything else, we need to talk about the circus colloquially known as the ADF. You might want to strap in for this one, because it's quite a lot.

Founded by some 30 leaders of the Christian Right, the Alliance Defending Freedom is a legal advocacy and training group that has:

- Supported the recriminalization of sexual acts between consenting LGBTQ adults in the U.S. and criminalization abroad
- Contended that LGBTQ people are more likely to engage in pedophilia
- Claimed that a “homosexual agenda” will destroy Christianity and society

vivllainous

2h2 hours ago

If you don't know what the ADF is, I envy you because what we're dealing with is an extremist hate group. That's not coming from me, that's coming from the Southern Poverty Law Center who has also documented some of their more notable positions as the following on their website which I encourage you to go read: splcenter.org/fight...

2h2 hours ago

The SPLC later goes on in detail to state how the ADF has opposed anti-bullying laws for queer students, has “portrayed LGBTQ discrimination as a right”, how one of their attorneys tried to “debunk” Matthew Shepard's murder being a hate crime, and that their international branch has “partnered with groups that have ties to far right christian nationalism, and white nationalism”. I don't think I need to explain how morally bankrupt this is.

vivllainous

2h2 hours ago

With the foundation of “The ADF is a bunch of bigoted lobbyists with ungodly amounts of cash at their disposal”, I have a really hard time believing anything of substance in these 6 minutes of unbridled transphobic propaganda that they call a video. It's impossible to fact check anything (probably intentionally so) because the only info given is that these people are from Switzerland. They also cite the goddamn Cass review as a source because of course they fucking do.

2h2 hours ago

For those who are unaware, the Cass review is a pile of nonsense cosplaying as scientific for the purpose of pushing transphobic policy. Yale Law did a critique of the Cass review, stating that “The review's statements often conflict with their own recommendations”, that the “discussion of evidence quality is scientifically unsound”, and that they “solicited invalid professional viewpoints”.

law.yale.edu/sites...

[from Google Search:

What does the Cass review say?

Social transition: Dr Cass has not called for adolescents to have their right to their identity or autonomy removed. Nor did Dr Cass recommend a blanket ban on social transitioning for children of any age. Most significantly, Dr Cass did not support unilateral 'outing' of trans young people by schools. The Cass Review - Our initial review and actions - Stonewall

What was the conclusion of the Cass report?

For the majority of young people, a medical pathway may not be the best way to manage their gender-related distress. For those young people for whom a medical pathway is clinically indicated, it is not enough to provide this without also addressing wider mental health and/or psychosocially challenging problems. The one thing conservatives fastened onto and hated more than anything else about Obama was "Hope."

Hope is a threat. Hope means others aspire to a better future. And for conservatives, better is ALWAYS a zero sum. If someone else gets better, they get worse, that's how they see it. Even if that better for someone else ALSO lifts them up, conservatives STILL feel diminished.

They'll squat in the dark and shit on their shoes and call it freedom, just so long as no one else gets any light.

They're miserable by design. It's their religion.

Happy, educated, optimistic people are hard to manipulate. It's fear and hate and threats that put conservative politicians in office and buys the preacher man a new jet. There's a reason why politicians tell you "they" are coming to get you and the holy men read from the Old Testament and not the new one.

They HATE the idea of hope. Hopeless people hand over their money and their freedom a whole lot easier.

A D.C. disciplinary panel has ruled that ex-Trump DOJ official Jeffrey Clark — who tried to overturn the 2020 election results — should be suspended from practicing law for two years.

From the panel's report: "His recklessness risked disabling the Justice Department, throwing the Presidential election into chaos, and even potentially causing riots in the streets."

A final ruling on Clark's suspension still has to be made by the D.C. Bar's Board of Professional Responsibility.

The best part, for the politicians and the preachers, is that hopelessness is self-sustaining. Hopelessness grows on you, until you can't imagine any other way to be and the very thought of others being hopeful fills you with yellow-eyed contempt and a raging desire to stomp it out. You'll do their work for free. That's why we don't build anything in America anymore. Why we don't dream big and do big and and BELIEVE big.

The oligarchs WANT you hopeless, the profit margins are higher.

stonekettle

17h17 hours ago

But here's the funny thing: Obama WON on that message of hope.

And he won big, TWICE.

Hope is far more powerful than hate and fear and hopelessness. If only you have the wit and the wherewithal to harness it. Obama did. I think Harris does. I know YOU do.

If you want a better future, you have to believe in it first.

If you want a better nation, you have to be a better citizen.

Far-right, anti-immigration riots persist across the U.K. Here's what to know

August 4, 2024 6:49 PM ET

Juliana Kim, NPR

Over the past few days, the U.K. has been battered by widespread riots led by hundreds of far-right protesters.

The violent rallies began on Tuesday night following a deadly stabbing spree that killed three young girls and wounded several others at a children's dance and yoga class in northwest England.

The attack has triggered Islamophobic and anti-immigration sentiments in the U.K., leading to hundreds of arrests, dozens of officers injured, and multiple buildings damaged — including a mosque and a hotel known to have housed asylum seekers.

The riots come after a stabbing rampage on July 29 at a Taylor Swift-themed dance and yoga class in Southport, England.

Three girls — Bebe King, 6; Elsie Dot Stancombe, 7; and Alice Dasilva Aguiar, 9 — were killed and 10 more were injured, including eight children and two adults. Police arrested a [Black] 17-year-old male at the scene but initially withheld his name because the suspect was under 18.

That's when false rumors began to spread online, claiming that an asylum-seeker was behind the attack. (The suspect, publicly named by police Thursday as Axel Rudakubana, was born in Wales.)
